

In the last year alone, almost 350,000 Londoners suffered at the hands of their law-breaking landlords.

HOUSING

The number of affordable homes built in 2015/16 fell by 52 per cent to the lowest number in 24 years.

The Right to Buy (RTB) scheme gives eligible council tenants the right to buy their home from the council at a discount.

Privatisation of rail networks strikes and further fall in funding.

TfL cycle hire bikes now available in more Lambeth locations.

TRANSPORT

NATURE

Trees for Cities charity planted more than 50,000 new urban trees in parks, streets, schools and housing estates.

The proposed Garden bridge, will devastate the Thames ecosystem and destroy 30 mature trees.

More than 95 per cent of people who are in contact with secondary care mental health services are out of work.

Lambeth and Southwark Mind prepares to launch the Psychosis Therapy Project in South London, which will provide therapies for vulnerable people in crisis.

HEALTHCARE

LEISURE

The research warned that proposed increases of up to 55 per cent could force live venues to shut their doors.

Walking or cycling for 20 mins a day could 'save NHS £1.7bn' services.

WORK

SCHOOLS

Opening of a Lambeth school is delayed by a year because a site cannot be found.

Students at West Thornton Primary School in south London have started holding "shoeless" classes, where they go barefooted.

Residents are more likely to be in employment in Lambeth than the London average, with the largest sectors in human health and social work and administrative and support services.

Half of Londoners 'fear they will never retire', survey reveals

South London MPs pledged to take the fight for better mental health all the way to Westminster this week, as they lined up to support Change Is Possible campaign.

In the last year alone, almost 350,000 Londoners suffered at the hands of their law-breaking landlords.